THE FIRST UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Atlantic City, N. J.

90

The First United Presbyterian Church, located at Pacific and Pennsylvania Avenues, Atlantic City, N. J., was founded in 1856 and is a perfect specimen of English Norman Church architecture. It has fostered the inception of four daughter churches in the resort and encouraged the organization of fifty other Presbyterian Churches in South Jersey. Known as "THE VISITORS' CHURCH" for more than a Century.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.
SEP 6 1966

9/5/66

Hello Catherine: Spending a couple of weeks Rere. Hope to see the Beauty Parade tomorrow night. Am enjoying a very lazy time. See you soon. Love

Sincerely Florence M.

62319

Published by Jack Freeman, Longport, N. J.

ALWAYS YOUR ZIP

4¢ LINCOLN U.S. POSTAGE

POST CARD

Address

Miss Catherine Schenkel
2041 Spring Garden St.
Philadelphia, Pa
19130